The California Farm Debt Adjustment committee, under the able leadership of Chairman T. C. Tucker, has made a very gratifying showing, from all indications, in the rather important matter of keeping farmers solvent. In a recent report issued by the Tucker committee it is pointed out that there are 54 counties in California at the present time which maintain fully organized and active county committees to make possible immediate and direct attention on the adjustment of debts. These county committees are kept constantly in touch with the state organization, and a veritable network of correspondence has been set up, supplying exact information to county committees on matters of policy and precedent. Yet despite the vastness of this service, the cost to the public has been practically negligible because of the fine voluntary cooperation exhibited generally, and while SERA has offered to 36 county committees to pay part-time salaries to a stenographer-secretary on an emergency relief basis, only six counties have applied for this assistance—and two of them received it.

The good Mr. Alco persists in looking upon upright citizens who choose to keep firearms in their homes, either for the purpose of gaming, sporting, or for protection, as incorrigible rogues and villains, so it will be the duty of the electorate to swarm to the polls in November and repudiate him in such a manner that he will not again try to crush majority interests with his miserable minority opinions. Vote "No" on the Alco Anti-Gun law!

Much is at present being said about the proposition which will appear on the November ballot as No. 3. This measure proposes to make the positions of justice of the supreme court and judge of the district court of appeals selective, so that when a vacancy occurs in one of these positions, the governor shall have power only to nominate a successor, while the final confirmation must come from a committee on qualifications to consist of: the chief justice of the supreme court, the presiding justice of the district court of appeals in which the vacancy occurs, and the attorney general. Moreover, the person so nominated and confirmed, must, at the next general election, come before the people for approval.

This, certainly, would be a decided improvement on the old governor-appointmentship method. It would eliminate, almost certainly, appointment of men whose only virtue is that they are on the bandwagon with the political machine in power. Such, you will remember, was Ira F. Thompson, a weakling appointed by Rolph and swept into office again by an electorate which thought his past retention of office an irrefutable proof of his competency.

MARY WHITE,
PIONEER, LAID AT REST MON.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary H. White, 89, were held Saturday from the parlors of Roger Darling in San Jose. Interment took place in Oak Hill Memorial park.

Mrs. White, who had not been well for some time, passed away Thursday at her home in Campbell. A native of Marietta, Ohio, she came with her husband to this community 45 years ago. Mr. White, who passed away some years ago, was the founder of the local lumber yard.

Inactive for the past few years, Mrs. White will be remembered particularly by the old timers as a woman of sterling character, a civic and charity worker, and a good and kind neighbor. She is survived by two sons, Charles White of Campbell, and Edmund B. White of San Francisco.

San Jose, Sept. 26—An ambitious dramatic undertaking which calls for the presentation of six outstanding plays during the coming school year at San Jose State college has been announced by Hugh Gilis, head of dramatic arts at the college.

Featuring variety combined with quality, the series includes plays ranging in character from Shakespeare's "Hamlet," to a light popular comedy yet unchosen, representing the most ambitious dramatic effort ever undertaken by the San Jose college.

The plays and the dates of presentation are: "Hamlet," Nov. 1 and 2; "Death Takes a Holiday," Walt Ferris, Dec. 6 and 7; "Hay Fever," Noel Coward, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1; "Beyond the Horizon," Eugene O'Neil, May 2 and 3; a modern comedy, yet unchosen, April 4 and 5.

Tickets may be reserved at the college by mail.

Mrs. L. C. Dunlap, who visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Dunlap last week, left Saturday for Palo Alto where she will visit her daughter this week. She plans to return to her home near Watsonville Sunday.

Jack Bohnett Is U. C. Editor

Jack Bohnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bohnett of San Jose and grandson of "Uncle Joe" Bohnett of North Union avenue and senior at the University of California, has been named as night editor of the Daily Californian as a climax to three years' of active and able service in the capacity of reporter on the college paper.

Going east this summer with a classmate, Roger Johnson, Bohnett won distinction by the competent manner in which he covered at first hand the Poughkeepsie regatta. When the California crew copped first honors, Bohnett naturally came into a position of considerable prominence, and his brilliant heralding of the crew triumph, it is said, played no small part in the appointment.

A senior in the college of letters and science, Bohnett is majoring in political science.

Grammar School
Paper Drive Over

Today witnessed the close of the grammar school paper drive which was started last Thursday in order to increase the relief chest for needy children.

Four prizes were awarded to the rooms obtaining the most paper by the P. T. A., which sponsored the drive. At a future date, the same group will sponsor a special clothes drive for needy school children. Mrs. W. C. Bohnett will act as organizational head.

FOOTBALL GETS BOOST FROM C.
U. H. S. BOARD

At a meeting of the high school board of trustees this week football was given a definite impetus when board members contributed $50 out of their own pockets as a working fund to be augmented by money raised by the student body, and arranging for the clearing of a football field on the Hagelin tract purchased several years ago by the high school district.

Dr. F. R. Anderson, athletic committeeman on the board, pointed out that the field will be cleared at no cost to the district, and that support of the local Kiwanis club and of other business men had been generously pledged. Suits have been ordered, he said, and the program will be well under way in a brief time.

A meeting of the supreme council of the student body was held yesterday when it was determined that the organization would lend $100 to the football fund, to be returned to the student body treasury when the team gets on a paying basis.

Anyone interested in promoting the game here is invited to contribute to the fund.

Miss Helen Probstfield on Friday went to Berkeley where she visited with Miss Doris Lathrop and attended meetings of her sorority, Phi Mu. She returned to Campbell today, and will leave Friday morning for her home in Fargo, N. D.

Initiation of half a dozen new members into Orchard City grange was celebrated last night at a harvest feast held in Odd Fellows hall. Fred Hubback presided.

After the dinner, a business meeting was called, and plans for the annual booster night, to be held in the high school annex next Saturday, were completed. The plans include dancing, entertainment, and refreshments, which will be served by Mrs. M. F. Hughes.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Gerome Rollin Monday, at the San Jose hospital, a daughter, Valerie Joyce. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Collins of McCoy avenue.

LEGION BAND WILL APPEAR
FRIDAY NIGHT

The "Blue Eagles," crack American Legion band, will appear in concert at the grammar school auditorium this Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Headed by Herbert M. Shadle, local druggist, the Kiwanis club has taken charge of the ticket selling drive, and every house in Campbell will be solicited, according to an announcement from the committee Saturday evening.

Receipts from the program will be divided between the local scouts, who are assisting in the ticket canvass, and the Legionnaires themselves. The Blue Eagles won first place in the band competition at the last state convention of the Legion, and aspiring now to national honors, they will use their portion of the benefit to defray expenses to the grand convention to be held at Miami, Fla., some time in the near future.

Members of the ticket-selling committee are Mark Purmort, H. E. Hansen, Jack Murdock, Rev. Edwin Bowling, Ralph Smith, Herbert M. Shadle, and Rev. J. H. Bennett, scoutmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krause were feted at a delightful farewell party given in their honor recently by Mrs. George L. Parsos at their home on Hamilton avenue.

The Krauses were on the eve of their departure on a four months' tour of the east. Travel talks and games furnished the diversion of the evening, and toward the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served. A gift from friends of the guests of honor was presented by Rev. C. B. Sylvester.

Present were the Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Krause, N. I. Augustine, C. X. Cherie, Charles Sturdevant, William Sumner, Frank Farrier, Simonds of Iowa, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Sylvester, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Whiffen, and the host and hostess.

To Play Football

Gridiron grit is to be encouraged at the grammar school this year—but danger promises only for Johnny's britches.

This because the football to be played at the grammar school will be "touch tackle," a game in which a touch constitutes a tackle. Thus, an "instinct" for regulation football will be promoted, but the danger deriving from severe bodily contact will be eliminated. John Pavisio, physical educational director, will give instruction to those boys who request it.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

Probably no one has a keener sympathy for victims of the depression than the farmer, for no industry has been harder-hit by the economic upheaval of the past four years than agriculture.

But the average California farmer, already fighting with his back to the wall against glutted markets and ruinous prices, can hardly be blamed, nonetheless, if he looks askance at the visionary schemes now being proposed to populate farm lands with city unemployed.

Without regard to the politics of the situation, for California farmers are of all political faiths and persuasions, the many state farm colonization schemes, whether based on the "subsistence" theory, or on "farming for profit," are alike dangerous and unsound.

New lands brought into production in California under present conditions, regardless of the system employed or the distribution made of the crops, could have but one result—the further impairment and crippling of the whole farming industry.

And that, in turn, would inevitably mean bankruptcy and loss of their farms for thousands of additional farmers.

But aside from the overproduction aspect of the problem, California voters, before they give their approval to any scheme for state land colonies, should recall that the state has already experimented in the land colonization business—with disastrous and costly results!

Some 15 years ago, California launched two land colonization projects, one at Durham and the other at Delhi. The colonies were settled by experienced farmers, who had the further advantage of guidance from state supervisors and superintendents.

And California less than three years ago, admitted the failure of the projects and has since written off nearly $3,000,000 in losses—at the expense of the taxpayers! The experiment was equally disastrous for the great majority of the settlers, many of whom lost their life-time savings.

One of the lessons learned from the Durham-Delhi experiment was the readiness with which many colonists, on a government project, will adopt the attitude that "the state put us here and it is up to the state to take care of us!" At both Durham and Delhi, apart from other factors which contributed to the failure, individual initiative—and personal responsibility—suffered by the state colonization plan.

There are many dangers in the present programs to colonize unused lands with jobless workers, not the least of which is the fact that thousands of unemployed from other states would undoubtedly be attracted to California if the schemes were placed in operation. The influx, in fact, has already started, merely as a result of the possibility that the programs will be undertaken, with 662 poor pilgrim families coming to California in June, 706 in July and 827 in August.

Mrs. Julius Bachman entertained the members of her bridge club at her home on Everett street Thursday evening. After a pleasant session of cards at which Mrs. Earl Young won first prize, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Others present were Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. Horace Lea, Mrs. Floyd Bohnett, Mrs. Richard Knappen, Mrs. William Ohlen and Mrs. Bert Young.

At a recent meeting of We and Our Neighbors club it was announced that the hostesses for the October meeting will be the Misses Flora Downing, Lilla Downing and Anna Kopp. Plans are being made for a card party to be given at the club house Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6 Mrs. E. H. Todd is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

And if the programs once became operative, not only would there be a new stampede of jobless to California, to be supported by California taxpayers, but hundreds of the state's permanent farm population would soon be forced to the wall and added to charity lists.

The California voter, if he is alert in his own defense, will guard against the bitter disappointment and tragic consequence of any wholesale land colonization scheme, especially at this time when agriculture is struggling for rehabilitation.

THE SHERIFF'S FIGHT

(EDITORIAL)

Let us be fair in considering the issues involved in the sheriff's fight and determine our attitude by facts and not by prejudice. No one will deny that in detecting crime and apprehending the offenders Sheriff Emig has been a pronounced success.

Most of the good people of this county do not like the liquor situation as it now exists in this state and county and there is a disposition in some quarters to blame the present sheriff of this county for these conditions. We might as well recognize the fact that the people of this state are themselves to blame for much of these bad conditions. The voters of this state adopted the present state liquor law that gives to the state board of equalization the power to grant licenses to sell liquor. Neither the voters nor the sheriff of the county, whether he be Mr. Emig or Mr. Lyle, can change this law and these regulations. The state board of equalization can grant licenses to anyone it pleases and can make regulations governing the places where liquor is sold.

We do not like to see young boys and girls drinking liquor and made drunken by it, but so long as the present system is in force it will be easy for boys and girls to get liquor, outside of the saloons if not in them, and to get drunk if they wish to do so. If we do not like these results it would be wise for us to change the system.

It has been charged that saloons can not get licenses unless they agree to sell Tacoma beer. This is a charge against the state board of equalization, not against the sheriff, for whoever he is the sheriff could not in any possible way either increase or decrease the number of saloons that handle Tacoma beer. If there is any impropriety connected with the granting of licenses to saloons that handle Tacoma beer, the impropriety rests with the state board of equalization and not with the sheriff, and this will be true whether Mr. Emig or Mr. Lyle is sheriff of this county.

Let us be fair and place the blame for these distressing conditions where it belongs, on the present law and the state board of equalization, and not attempt to make the sheriff a scapegoat for the defects of the law and the regulations adopted by the state board.

It has also been charged that Sheriff Emig has appointed 1200 deputies for the purpose of doing politics and helping in his election. Everyone who knows anything about the facts knows that these deputies were appointed at the request of the Citizens Safety committee of Santa Clara county, that was organized to prevent anarchists from becoming active in this county and for the purpose of maintaining law and order here. That this purpose might be worked out legally and effectively and not through mob violence, this organization asked Sheriff Emig to appoint these deputies, which he has done. The result has been that we have gone through our fruit and vegetable harvests without any anarchistic demonstrations such as occurred last year and our fruit has been gathered in an orderly way very much in contrast to conditions existing in some other sections of the state. Whoever had been sheriff of Santa Clara county, if he were right-minded, would have done in this case just what Sheriff Emig did.

We ask the voters of this county not to let the evil of our present liquor law and the regulations adopted by the board of equalization in handling the liquor business control the election of a sheriff in this county. Let us elect a sheriff upon merit and not as a result of blind prejudice.

AUTUMN BRINGS crisp cool football Saturdays—days when the young folk sit for hours on hard bleachers yelling their loyalties into the cloudless September skies. As the afternoon wears on, a golden haze creeps over the field and the game is won by a gallant touchdown. Then home they come trooping from the game, enthusiasm high at the victory of their Alma Mater, appetites ravenous from the out-of-door air. Food is their battle cry now as they storm the kitchen. Ignore them and they will raid your very larder of all its well planned Sunday provender. So the wise mother, trained by a family of football fans, will be prepared for their stormy homecoming with an "After the Game Supper." A hearty meal with the decided tang and zest of out-of-doors may be spread informally on a table or buffet where they may serve themselves. Steaming bowls of soup and capacious casseroles of beans or spaghetti will satisfy all the nooks and crannies of their India rubber appetites. These menus for Saturday night suppers will make your home as popular with the young crowd as the game itself.

Cape Cod Baked Beans and Corn—Place 1 medium can Oven Baked Beans (Boston Style) in an earthenware pot or in a casserole; add 2 cups corn, or use 4 ears fresh corn, split the kernels through the center with a sharp knife, then slice from the ear. Mix well with the Beans, and add 1 teaspoon sugar, ½ teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon molasses. Peel 1 small onion and place whole among the beans and corn. Bury a 2-inch square of salt pork or several slices bacon in the pot or casserole. If salt pork is used, cut the rind in several places and allow it to protrude slightly above the beans. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for 1½ hours or until onion is tender and the flavor of the pork is well through the beans and corn. Onion may be removed before serving.

Mince Meat Upside Down Cake with Whipped Cream—Cream ½ cup butter, add ¾ cup sugar gradually and cream well. Add 2 eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition until light and fluffy. Sift 1½ cups cake flour (sifted once before measuring), ¼ teaspoon salt and 2 teaspoons baking powder together, and add to first mixture alternately with ½ cup milk. Butter a shallow square or oblong baking pan. Sprinkle pan with ¼ cup sugar and line with ½ cup Mince Meat. Turn cake batter over Mince Meat and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for about 45 minutes. Serve hot with whipped cream, or lemon or vanilla sauce. Serves 8.

Cooked Spaghetti with Frankfurters—Slice ½ pound frankfurters crosswise into ¼ inch slices and brown in 2 tablespoons butter with 1 medium onion, finely diced. Push to one side and heat 1 medium can Cooked Spaghetti in Tomato Sauce in the other side. Place Spaghetti in center of plate and dot meat over the top or around edges. Garnish with parsley sprigs or slices of Sweet Gherkins.

Glazed Apples—Wash, core and prick well with a fork, 6 or 8 large red apples. Place in a baking dish and pour over them a syrup made from 1½ cups water and 2 cups sugar by boiling together for about 10 minutes, or until it becomes moderately thick. Then sprinkle the apples with sugar to form a coating on top, and bake in a hot oven for about ½ hour, or until the apples are tender when tested with a fork, basting every 5 or 10 minutes. A jelly like syrup is produced by cooking the apples of one or two apples in the syrup. Pour this through a strainer over the apples.

THE TRUTH

ABOUT HAIR AND HAIR TREATMENTS

You may be one of millions who has wasted time, hope, money on "tonics" and treatments... Now Charles Nessler, inventor of the permanent wave, leading hair scientist, author of "Story of Hair", makes a simple but revolutionary discovery that ends

BALDNESS • DANDRUFF
OILINESS • THINNING HAIR
In the past, tonics and treatments tried to stop hair from falling. That is as useless as to try to stop an animal from shedding! What you must do is make your scalp replace the hair that falls—in short, complete the hair growing cycle. It is on that scientific principle that Charles Nessler's Pro-Ker is based. 30,000 tests have proved that Pro-Ker produces results. Hair for hair, it makes the scalp replace falling hair with new hair. Enjoy your birthright—beautiful, lustrous hair. Send for Charles Nessler's revealing booklet. Better still, buy Pro-Ker at your druggist, or mail the coupon below.

RADIO CLUB RE-FORMS

Under the guidance of C. E. York, farm science instructor in the high school, the radio club went through a process of reorganization last Monday. This group was formed several years ago. Members discussed the possibility of an amateur sending station and made organizational plans for the future.

Mrs. F. O. Bohnett entertained the Social Engineers at a barbecue luncheon at her home on North Union avenue Friday. This was the first fall meeting of the group.
